

Request to Reschedule AAMC SJT Exam

Rescheduling is not allowed in the 2020 testing year. Exceptions may be made for emergencies; rescheduling may be granted, but is not guaranteed, for one of the reasons listed below and in The AAMC Situational Judgment Test: Essentials for Testing Year 2020.

To request a rescheduled appointment for any of the below reasons, send this completed form, along with supporting documentation to asksjt@aamc.org. Supporting documentation includes any hospital records, official requests for deployment or jury duty, funeral program or death certification, and/or proof of displacement. The AAMC will review requests until Sept. 17, or one week after the last test date of Window 2. However, we strongly recommend you submit your request within 24 hours after your scheduled appointment time for the best opportunity for a new appointment if we are able to approve your request. If approved, the AAMC will offer you a new appointment but cannot guarantee your preferred date or time.
