Introducing a New Doctor on Our Team!

The ____________________________ (health care facility) is pleased to announce that Dr. ______________________ (last name) has begun practicing in the city of__________________ (city).

Dr. ___________________ (last name) attended college at ___________________________ (college), earned her medical degree from _______________________ (medical college), and completed her residency in ___________________________ (specialty).

Dr. ___________________ (last name) won the ________________ (award) for her research which led to a cure for _______________________________ (disease).

Dr. ___________________ (last name) will work ________________ (time of day). She will spend part of this time ________________ , and part of this time ________________ .

This facility is a great environment for patients and doctors. Dr. _________________________’s office has many special features including ____________________________________________________________

___________________________________________________________

_________________________________________________________.

Dr. ________________________ says, “The most exciting part of my job is…” __________________________________________________________

__________________________________________________________

__________________________________________________________

Lesson Plan Three: Newspaper Worksheet

Directions: Create your own news article about your new career as a doctor by filling in the blanks. Use the word bank or your own ideas. Draw a picture of your new office or hospital’s logo and write a caption.

WORD BANK (suggestions)

Health Care Facility
- Family Practice
- Urgent Care
- Hospital
- Research Center

Name of College
- University of Michigan
- Wayne State University
- Howard University
- Georgetown University

Medical Colleges
- Georgetown Medical
- Wayne State Medical
- University of Michigan Medical
- Howard University Medical

Specialty
- Emergency Medicine
- General Surgery
- Pediatrics
- Psychiatry
- Cardiology